UNIONTOWN.

The Act of June 18, 1861, ch. 62, adds the following to section 88.

6. Any white person or persons, free negro or slave, who shall violate any of the penal ordinances, or any ordinance, or clause of any ordinance of the corporation of Uniontown, the violation of which, subjects the party violating the same to a fine, shall, immediately after the fine is imposed, pay the same, otherwise the said party so offending shall be imprisoned not exceeding ten days.

ARTICLE VIII.

Cecil County.

CONTENTS

CHESAPEAKE CITY—	EC.	PORT DEPOSIT—	BEC.
How taxes, fines and forfei-		To suppress disorderly meet-
tures collected in	1	ings	3
		To prevent firing guns, &c	8
DOGS-		To prevent stock running at	i
Collectors to return lists of,		large	8
and when and how	31	To prevent fast driving	8
Who may assess damages to		To prevent parading of stal-
sheep by, and how	32	lions	3
Pay of appraisers	32
When appraisement to be filed	32	RISING SUN—
In what order damages paid.	33	Incorporated	. 4
Oath to be made by owner of		Who may elect commission-
sheep	33	ers, and when	. 5
Collectors may kill dogs, and		Who to be judge of elections	. 6
when and pay for	34	How cases of the decided	. 7
		How vacancies filled	8, 10
NORTH-EAST—		President, how chosen and du-
How taxes, fines and forfei-		ty of
tures collected in	2	When commissioners to meet	; 10
		Appointment and duty of
PORT DEPOSIT—		clerk
Commissioners of to regulate		Ordinances to be recorded
market	8	Bounds of village	. 12